

Using Bullet Points for SEO

Last Updated on 19th Jan 2016

- Text that stands out is generally considered as important.
- Bullet points are intended break up a page and standout more than normal body text.
- Too many bullet points are difficult to read and they lose impact.
- Try to start long paragraphs with a few bullet points summarising the text.
- Use bullet points to highlight your keyword phrases and long-tail terms
